- Compact and portable single or two-burner stove, great for outdoor activities
- Efficiently fuelled with Methylated Spirits, making it very safe to use and store
- Compact, free standing design makes it easy to take out and about. (can be fixed, screws supplied)
- Simple and reliable design, very few moving parts, thick superior stainless-steel frame, easy to clean
- No fittings and connectors

Alcohol cookers are traditionally considered as the safest way to cook in boats and while camping. They work without pressure, are pleasantly quiet and take up little storage space. Our compact stoves are easy to store away. They give you ample cooking power for fast and flexible cooking on board. Easily accessible fuel containers make for simple and safe filling.

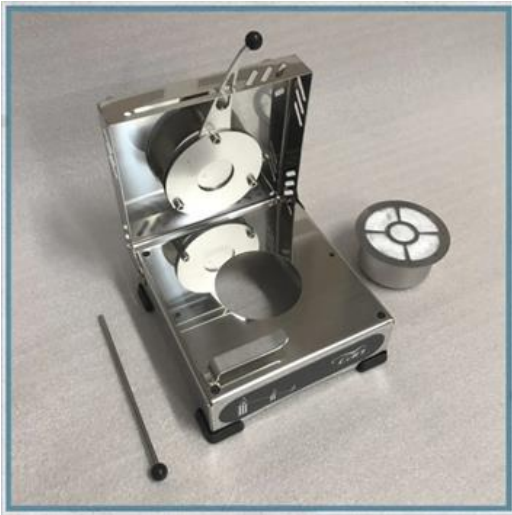

Features:

- Simply pour denatured alcohol (Methylated Spirits) into the stainless-steel burner cup, where fuel is absorbed and bound in a non-flammable wool material
- Bonetti Campers stoves utilizes natural capillary action to draw alcohol from storage to surface, which means there is no dangerous pressure involved
- No vents or ventilation in cabinets are needed
